DAYTON, Ohio, September 13, 1968 --- Attention women! Are you confused about yourself and life? Are your everyday questions mounting and going unanswered? Maybe what you need is a bit of psychology. The University of Dayton is conducting a specialized short course entitled "Psychology for Women," beginning October 2. The eight sessions held every Wednesday from 7:30 - 9:30 P.M., will cover such topics as learning to live with me, learning to live with others, the unconscious mind, sanity and personal development. The course, instructed by Dr. Charles Scheidler, professor of psychology, will be held at a fee of $25. For more information contact Nora Duffy, Director of Continuing Education, Phone 461-5500, Ext. 346.
